CONSTABLE WEST DEAD.

Passed Away at His Home
On West Seventh Street
Monday Night.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.

Was a True Democrat And
One of the Best Known
Men in the County.

After being confined to his bed a little over two weeks, with a complication of diseases, Mr. W. H.
West died at his home on West Seventh street Monday night. Three children Mrs. Jennie Owen, Miss Fannie West and R. A. West survive him.

Mr. West was one of the most extensively known citizens of the county. He was elected Constable of the Second Magisterial District several years ago, which office he filled efficiently for several terms and was re-elected last November for another term of four years.

Before moving to the city a score or more years ago, Mr. West was engaged in stock raising and merchandising on his farm in the Western part of the county, which brought him in contact with the people of that section of the county. He was generally popular and was considered a good business man and was quite successful.

Constable West was a Democrat and never failed to give his party his most ardent support, often being in positions when loyalty to Democracy jeopardized his business, but throughout he always remained true to his party.

Though suffering from a complication of diseases for many months, being a man of great vitality for his years, he withdrew from the duties of his office only when his physical condition compelled him.

Mr. West was 75 years of age and was for a number of years a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services took place at his late residence Tuesday afternoon and the remains of one of our oldest native citizens were laid to rest in Hopewell.

Inspected April 16.

Adjt.-Gen. Haley on Saturday last issued orders for the annual inspection of the organizations composing the Kentucky State Guard, to begin on April 9 next, and continue from day to day until all have undergone inspection. Melville S. Jarvis, of the Fourth infantry, United States Army, and Col. Noel Gaines, Inspector General of the Kentucky Guard, will conduct the inspection. In each instance the inspection will be held at the company armory at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The inspection of Capt. Clark's company will be held on April 16.
The inspection of the regimental headquarters will also be held here at the same time.

OLD CITIZEN GONE.

Wm. H. Smith Aged About 75 Years Died Tuesday.

News of the death of Mr. William H. Smith was received here yesterday morning.

Mr. Smith was one of the oldest citizens of this county and was ill but a short time before his death.
He was about 75 years of age and is survived by his wife and two sons, Thomas and Marion. Mrs. Smith is an aunt of Messrs. Frank and Bailey Waller, of this city. He was a man of strict integrity and held in high esteem by all who knew him. The burial took place in the family burying ground, near Gracey, yesterday afternoon.

Court This Week.

BENTON NOT INDICTED.

Tom Dattilo Files Petition for Naturalization Papers.

The Commonwealth docket was completed on Tuesday and the remainder of court will be taken up in the disposition of common law and equity matters. The petit jurors will not be dismissed for some time, however.

The case of John Cheaney, under indictment for murder, was called Tuesday morning, but trial was not entered into. By agreement of counsel, an order was made continuing the case until the seventeenth day of June term.

In the matter of John Benton, charged with shooting and in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, said jury having failed to indict, on motion of the Commonwealth the defendant was released from jail.

Joe Stratton, colored, was fined $20 for gaming. Stratton entered a plea of guilty.

Thomas Gaetano Dattilo filed a petition on yesterday, asking that he be naturalized.

WARE'S AMENDMENT

Removed Most of the Kicking Against the Cow Law.

There seems to be no great dissatisfaction over the passage of the "cow law" by the City Council. Even those who were opposed to the proposed ordinance were satisfied by the amendment offered by Councilman Ware, postponing the operation of the law until May 1. Mr. Ware was an original and outspoken advocate of the law, but in a spirit of fairness thought the owners should be given a month or two to arrange enclosures for their cattle.

This wise amendment has doubtless caused the law to be looked upon with almost general favor.

The Sick

Mrs. E. M. Jones, of Newstead, is very ill of pneumonia.

Dr. T. W. Blakey is convalescent but it will take some time yet for him to fully recover.

Mr. Thos. W. Long is still confined to his room, but will probably be able to come down town in a few days.

Mrs. E. Keegan, who has been very sick for several weeks, is much improved and is able to sit up in bed some.

Mrs. J. M. Cravens has been confined to her bed for several weeks, and while her condition is not considered critical, she has been a great sufferer. She was some better yesterday.

Mr. Ike Hart, who had to be operated on in Cincinnati for some organic trouble, is getting along nicely. Mrs. Hart and daughter, Mrs. Lowenthal, are with him and will remain for a week or longer.

Judge Landes Presided.

During the absence of the regular Judge for a few days, Judge Landes was called to the bench and presided with his usual dignity and satisfaction to the bar.

Call for Meeting.

The County Committee of the Dark District Tobacco Association will meet in this city next Monday, March 26, at City Court room.

W. W. RADFORD, Chairman.

CORBIN PARK GAME

SENSATIONAL TALES CIRCULATED ARE UNTRUE.

Professional Forester Superintendent of the Great Preserve—Many Animals Shipped to Other Parks

—Skilled Hunters.

As the "who lives within half a stone's throw of Corbin Park, the writer has been somewhat amused but more disgusted at the sensational stories which have recently been published concerning the alleged slaughter of deer, and buffalo on this great New Hampshire preserve. These widely circulated stories all agreed on the main point, which was that the Corbins were killing off their game by wholesale to avoid the expense of winter feeding.

The accounts varied from pale green color to bright yellow, to harmonious with the particular papers in which they were published, but in one particular they were exactly alike—they were all utterly false. And what is more there was no excuse for these falsehoods, as the truth was accessible to anyone who cared to print it.

THINNING OUT

There was less game killed in Corbin Park this winter than has been killed there during any previous winter for as long as there has been a winter. All the professional hunters and practically every man who has fired a gun in the preserve this season, he knows exactly the number of deer, elk and wild boar which have been shipped and that fewer were shipped this winter than last, for instance.

The aforementioned stories would have been a trifle more plausible had they been circulated last year or the years before. This is the mildest winter New Hampshire has known for a long time. There was practically no snow in Corbin Park until the 30th of February, and consequently the animals, with the exception of the buffaloes, have required much less feeding than in the previous seasons. But even had the winter been a severe one, the extensive operations in scientific lumbering now going on in the preserve insure the elk and deer an enormous amount of browse at no expense to the owners.

Of course there has been a large amount of game shipped from the park this winter, as usual. Anyone who gives any thought to the subject must realize that a given area contains just so much grass and so many trees and shrubs and no more, and that, consequently, it will support just so many deer or other animals which rely on the grass and trees and shrubs for food.

This "thinning out" is not done haphazard. The superintendent, Mr. Blaine S. Viles, is himself a professional forester, and well-informed as to the amount of available browse in the preserve each year. He supplements his own knowledge with expert advice as to the number of animals that can be supported under existing conditions, and then he goes ahead. First of all, he makes arrangements to fill the numerous orders which have been received for live animals required for the stocking of other parks and game preserves. Many deer, elk and wild boar are driven or coaxed from the main park into smaller inclosures, where they are kept until they are needed; then they are put into crates and shipped to different parts of the country.

But besides these there are always large orders from the markets in Boston, New York and elsewhere, and such orders are filled by professional hunters, who shoot and bring in the game as it is needed. These men are expert marksmen, kill almost everything they fire at, usually with little or no pain to the animals themselves. I sometimes accompany these men on their hunting trips, and I can testify to their skill with a rifle, and in truth, they should be skillful since they get more practice on big game than almost any other men in America.

Corbin Park is the largest game preserve in America, and the shooting of the surplus stock which is not shipped alive is one of the practices which tend to make it successful. That it does cost money, and a lot of it, to feed great numbers of deer and buffalo in winter cannot be denied, but there is no objection between this expense and the killing of the animals. The biggest expense, by long odds, is entailed by the maintenance of the great buffalo herd, yet not a single buffalo has been killed at Corbin Park at this winter. Some newspapers cannot help lying, but they might at least try to tell reasonable lies.

The waist closes in the back and the full front is laid in attached pleats simulating box-pleats. The waist is plain, the slight fullness at the waistline being disposed of in gathers. The yoke is cut in battlement edge, and a high-standing collar completes the neck. The circular tucked skirts are very becoming to young girls and also very popular. The one here shown is adaptable to most of the season's fabrics and is particularly stylish in moiré. Henrietta, chintz, velveteen and serge are all suitable to the mode. The medium size will require two yards of 36-inch material for the waist and three and three-eighths yards for the skirt. Misses' Waist: Sizes for 15, 16 and 17 years. BABY'S COAT.

Pattern No. 5125.—This stylish little coat is fashioned upon the most simple lines, thus insuring comfort to the little wearer, the main feature to be considered in selecting garments for the baby. The large cape collar and turned-up cuffs are cut in squares at the edge, in battlement style, adding a great deal to the handsome appearance of the garment. Cashmere, French flannel, broadcloth, Bedford cord and bengaline silk are all favorite materials for making coats, and further elaboration is desired a full ruffle of lace placed under the squares on the cape could be used with charming effect. The medium size requires one and one-half yards of 44-inch material. Sizes for 1/2, 1 and 3 years.

This pattern will be sent to you on receipt of 10 cents. Address all orders to the Pattern Department of this paper. Be sure to give size and number of pattern wanted. For convenience, write your order on the following coupon:

Aurora Borealis Cause Panic.
A recent display of aurora borealis frightened the citizens of a little town in northern France. They thought that a neighboring village was on fire, so they took out the fire engines and hurried to the supposed conflagration. The brilliant display threw them into a panic. Afraid to go to bed, the townspeople paraded the streets for hours, and the churches were filled with women, who prayed all the night through.

THE PERFECT WAY.

Scores of Hopkinsville People Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles flow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

Are endorsed by Hopkinsville people.

C. B. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the coal business on Seventh St. and the L. & N. R. R., and who lives at 402 East 7th St., says: "I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I went to Thomas & Trahern's drug store, procured a box and gave them a thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught cold it always settled in my back and there followed a weakness of the kidneys which was exasperating, especially at night. I tried various remedies, but none of them gave anything like as satisfactory results as I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am pleased to say they brought me great relief. I have recommended the pills and will continue to do so to my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Prof. G. W. Chapman, Superintendent of the Madisonville schools, has been held to the circuit court on a charge of "willfully and unmercifully" beating Everett Tucker, a 16-year-old boy in the schools.

Gives Health, Vigor, Tone!

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. B. H. Shiel, Middleboro, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to relieve me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." Forcoughs and colds it has no equal. Sold by Cook & Higgins.

Mayfield is having a big singing school epidemic.

Cured Consumption!

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00, sold by Cook & Higgins.

The town charter of Elizabethtown has been repealed.

Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Itch, Ring Worm, Herpes, Barbers' Itch.

All of these diseases are attended by intense itching, which almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Salve and by its continued use a permanent cure may be effected. It has, in fact, cured many cases that had resisted all other treatment. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, up-to-date druggists at Hopkinsville.

Wheat is said to promise an abundant yield.

Harsh physics react, weaken the bowels cause chronic constipation. Doan's Regulents operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation. 25c. Ask your druggist for them.

There is a strong sentiment in Ohio county against liquor.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

It is said not half of the crop of quail was killed.

The Weather.

For Kentucky—Thursday, fair and warmer.

A bulletin issued by the Census bureau at Washington shows that the entire crop of cotton in 1905 was 10,697,013 bales.

The Statehood Bill seems to be effectually shelved for this session, as the President will not allow Oklahoma to come in without Arizona and New Mexico.

Emma Goldman presided at a meeting in New York to eulogize Herr Johann Most, the anarchist leader, who died Sunday. August Lott is slated to succeed Most.

Admiral Dewey before the House Committee on Naval Affairs advocated more big battleships for our navy. He urged that they be of American design, declaring our navy should be creative, not imitative.

Gen. John M. Thayer, Civil War veteran, former United States Senator and Governor of Nebraska, died at Lincoln after an illness which became serious only last Saturday. He was eighty-six years old.

Gov. Beckham has made the positive statement that he will not, for any purpose whatever, extend the call for the extra session of the General Assembly. Some wanted the call extended to consider an appropriation for the Jamestown Exposition.

The Chicago Federation of Labor has issued this order to its members: "No union man shall purchase a non-union casket or assist in paying for a non-union casket for a member of his family or a friend. No union man shall act as pallbearer at a funeral where a non-union casket is used."

Negotiations for a series of airship flights to be given during "Home-Coming Week", June 13 to 17, have been opened by the executive committee for "Home-Coming Week" with the only two airship exhibitors in this country, Knabenshue and Baldwin. If contracts are entered into with either one of the exhibitors, flights will be given on each of the first four days of the week.

Ed. Johnson, colored, was taken from jail at Chattanooga, Monday, by a mob of seventy-five men and hanged to a beam of the county bridge over the Tennessee river. The rope broke and the negro's body fell and the mob quickly riddled him with bullets. Sheriff Ship and the jailer were locked in a bathroom while the mob secured the prisoner. There was no disorder. Johnson is the negro who was to have been hanged that day for criminal assault on a young white woman, but in whose case the United States Supreme Court granted an appeal, which served as a stay of execution.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—condition indicated by pimples and eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." Miss BEGLAR BUCK, Stowe, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

DIAMOND STUD.

Given Retiring Superintendent—General Regret at His Departure.

The officials and employees of the Western Asylum have presented Dr. Milton Board with an elegant diamond stud as a slight token of their esteem. The retirement of Dr. Board from the superintendency of the asylum to become a member of the Board of Control will cause very general regret here in Hopkinsville. Indeed the people here would be very glad to see him decline the appointment, which brings with it a financial sacrifice, and remain here. The salary of the new position is $2,500 while the superintendent gets $2,000 and his living expenses for his entire family, which makes the place worth much more than $2,500. Dr. Board is a close personal friend of Gov. Beckham, but the Governor should not require him to make so great a personal sacrifice. Another reason is that the question of who will be superintendent is one that always causes our people more or less concern. Dr. Board has ruled with a firm hand and rid the asylum of outside bosses and his executive force and ability have been felt in all its departments. He is needed where he is, or rather where he was.

EXTRA ATTRACTION.

Ticket Holders to Tabernacle Course Admitted Free.

Through Manager McPherson, the Tabernacle managers make the following announcement:

"It gives us great pleasure to give this extra number to our patrons, which will make in all nine excellent numbers on the present course. While the patronage has been larger this season than last, the host of talent has been greater, and financially we will end the season about as we did last year. Mrs. William Calvin Chilton, who will appear on the course Monday night, April 3, is one of the most charming readers on the platform and will give an excellent program."

"Mrs. William Calvin Chilton—the greatest hump of the age. Hump bugs you into forgetting your troubles; sorrows become pleasures and poverty riches."

"Mrs. Chilton is a talented reader, with a fine platform presence. At various recitals during her study with us, she held her audience with power. No one who hears her can fail to be entertained."—Genevieve Stebbins, Principal of New York School of Expression.

"I often recall the evening here when your readings were so appreciatively applauded by ardent gathering of Spectators. You then created sundry imitators and admirers, by whom you are still remembered and spoken of."—A. H. Wall, Stratford-on-Avon.

No More Hazing.

THE THRILLING EXPERIENCE

And Close Call of Young

Elbert Wiley.

Facing a strong wind and almost blinding rain, which formed into a coating of ice as it fell Sunday night, as he was passing over the roof of his running freight train, Elbert Wiley, Jr., had an experience that he will not soon forget and which came near proving fatal.

Young Wiley is a member of the crew of one of the L. & N. freight trains. He is faithful in his duties and was merely complying with one of the rules of the road as he was carefully making his way over the train, from one end to the other. Careful as he was, he was unable to maintain his footing and slipped from a car to the ground. It was a miraculous escape from a horrible death as he sustained no serious injury. So certain were the remainder of the crew that young Wiley could not possibly escape death that when the train reached Pembroke word was sent to Caskey to make a search for the body of Wiley. The fat lot took place near Caskey, just beyond the Whitish road crossing. Rising from the side of the track in rather a stunned condition, Mr. Wiley started to walk back to the city, but shortly after was overtaken by a man in a buggy who gave him a ride home. He is now on his run again and does not intend to give up his job.

ABOVE THE AVERAGE.

The Lyceum Comedy Co. a

Very Pleasing Troop.

"On the Stroke of Twelve," the offering of the Lyceum Comedy Co. on Tuesday night, was a pleasing performance and was well received.

Last night "A Kentucky Sheriff" drew a large house and was a most pleasing portrayal of the simple life of the rural districts of Kentucky.

To-night the Company will be seen in the farce comedy, "How Wives Fool Their Husbands." Judging from what this company has given us so far, the balance of their engagement will be up to the standard and large houses will be the rule.

On Friday night, "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," and on Saturday afternoon a matinee for children, at which time the company will play "Foxy Grandpa." The engagement will close Saturday night with the sensational melo-drama, "The Kidnappers." This company has made many friends here and we hope to see them again. Prices will remain the same for the night shows—10, 20 and 30c. For the Saturday matinee the prices will be 10 and 20c. Seats on sale at Anderson & Fowler's.

COL. EWING READS RIOT ACT

Clarksville Called Down and Must Define Its Attitude.

THE FIGHT MUST CEASE.

Will Not Get Half As Much Tobacco As It Did Last Year—Inside History.

General Manager F. G. Ewing, of the Planters' Association, in a lengthy article to a Clarksville paper, has replied vigorously to the Clarksville boycotters and given a firm call down to those who are interfering with the work of the association.

He says the association has been trying for more than a year to arrive at an agreement with Clarksville, without success, and "that the Planters' Association resolved more than a year ago that the clique of tobacco sharks at Clarksville could not fool us at all."

Among the hot ones handed out is this:

"Clarksville, will you allow these men to destroy the growth of a magnificent city? These men, who claim that the Planters' Association is an injury to your best interests, and who know full well when they say it that the lie will die in their mouth? Will you not rise in your wrath and strength and let us show you by the demonstration of a 'thousand souls' that we are heartily for you as Clarksville, and resolutely against you as a clique of pirates, soulless, heartless and too cold for an impulse."

He twists Clarksville with this:

"If the planters have their way (and they will largely, sooner or later) there would be fewer empty business houses in Clarksville."

Mr. Louis Ladd is paid this left-handed compliment:

"As a matter of fact, the executive committee believes that in all matters where there was a wrangle or the least cause of disagreement between the Planters' Association and Clarksville as a whole or the so-called board of trade at Clarksville, Mr. Ladd has at all times been a trouble-some element. In this connection we will say that there will be a disbursement of a certain percentage of money that was retained, to equalize the Italian sale, but this cannot be done until all the warehouses settle up with the association, and that a very large sum of money is now due from Mr. Ladd's firm to the association. I will say that in connection with the firm of B. F. Gill & Company, that there was a certain sum of money due the association from them which Mr. Walker told our auditor he positively would not pay. I requested our treasurer, Mr. George Snaden, to go there with the auditor and demand the money, collect it, or institute proceedings for its collection, and that something like $1,600 was immediately forthcoming."

He concludes with this straight talk:

"So far as I know not a single one of the warehouses at Clarksville failed to charge us for storage after the first of November, but most of them charged us 25 cents per month additional, while B. F. Gill & Co. charged $1.50 for six months storage, where only two months were used."

As to Kendrick & Runyon, it was told to me that while Kendrick & Runyon were pretending to be friendly to the association, were smiling, shaking hands, soliciting business from the members of the association, that, under some of their account sales, was written, "It was a shame, that your tobacco was sold at this price, we could have sold it for more for you."

Through the whole of this controversy the planters' association wants to be put plainly upon record as recognizing the fact that there are honorable men engaged in the business of storage tobacco in Clarksville. And it is meet that we should accord them that credit which is always due to consistent men and to gentlemen. But in making the form of our contract we could make but one, and all men engaged in the storage of our tobacco without regard to conditions existing or location would have to sign the same contract just exactly as they would have to take out licenses to meet any other conventional obligation."

Very Respectfully,

through a long period of last summer there was a strong boycott against the association's tobacco, to which these very warehouses were parties.

It could easily be seen that when the boycott was finally broken by paths unknown to looters, but which in fact, were legitimate, and by the aid of Mr. Russens, of New York, Mr. B. J. O'Brien, of Louisville, and Mr. Jim Smith, of Clarksville, that it was a hard, serious struggle to gain a foothold, but we gained it, declared our independence of the conspirators, and set the flag of honesty and fair dealing to the breeze.

As a matter of course our progress was slow, but we have gained a fight which all honest men deserve. And outside of the farmer himself we are with a few exceptions obligated to none. It was the zeal and loyalty of the farmer and the crouching fear of Russens that put the conspirators into line.

I have lain awake more nights in an effort to devise a plan to thwart the unscrupulous tobacco men in Clarksville than has ever a tobacco man in an effort to thwart the association.

All honor to the good people of Clarksville and damned be the unscrupulous trickster with whom we had to deal.

The Planters' Association must contend for its contract in toto, nothing more or nothing less will please them, and, as I have stated before, we are upon amicable terms with every other warehouse in the district.

That this is a thrust at Clarksville, as has been intimated, is too absurd to warrant a moment's consideration.

This association has played no favorites, all have been treated exactly alike; and if Clarksville expects that measure of consideration and patronage which others will doubtless enjoy, our association must know its attitude positively without another moment's delay.

Some warehousemen of Clarksville as early as last October advanced money through pricing houses to planters presumably for the purpose of so involving and complicating the planter that the warehouse people could control the sale of the tobacco without any regard to the planters' pledge to the association.

The association is prepared to meet the emergency by legal steps and will guarantee that the parties who have so feloniously undertaken this work will not get 50 per cent. of the tobacco for storage which they received last year.

If it is a war to the knife and the knife to the hilt, the planters would easily make their attitude known. The intent of such a man might be easily conjectured.

Through the whole of this controversy the planters' association wants to be put plainly upon record as recognizing the fact that there are honorable men engaged in the business of storage tobacco in Clarksville. And it is meet that we should accord them that credit which is always due to consistent men and to gentlemen. St. Louis Live Stock Market.

Reported by Evans-Snyder-Buel Co., Live Stock Commission Agents.

(Special to the Kentuckian)

National Stock Yards, Ill., March 21.—Receipts of cattle were light here fore part of this week, demand fairly good from all sources, prices ruled stronger than close last week and are practically about the same as on last Thursday; quality of cattle coming here common, best that were here brought 5 1/2 but strictly choice grades would sell from 6 to 6 1/2. Bulk of medium cattle this week weighing from 900 to 1,250 lbs., sold 4.60 to 5.10. Butcher cattle trade moved fully 10 to 15c advance as compared with close of last week; choice fat heifers selling from 5 to 5 1/2, medium to good grades 4 to 4.60; however, these prices apply to fat cattle of good quality. Fat cows ruled strong as compared with last week; choice fat heavy cows selling from 4 to 4.60 with only a few good enough to bring these prices. Pretty decent kind of cows are selling 3.40 to 3.80. Canners from 2 to 2 1/2; veal calves about steady.

Very little change in the stocker and feeder market as compared with last week, receipts light, quality common. Best grades milk cows with calves, are in good demand at strong prices; medium classes no more than steady.

Heavy receipts and sharp declines were features of market Wednesday and Thursday, since which time, receipts have been light, prices have advanced until Thursday's decline has been regained. With $5,000 here to-day, prices ruled 5 1/2 higher, again reaching high point of season—61c. Shipping demand was also good to-day, lights showed as much advance as good strong weight hogs. Bulk of lights sold today from 6.25 to 6.35; prime heavies and butchers 6.40 to 6.50, plain packers 6.20 to 6.35.

Run on sheep continues light, demand for strong weight good, medium sheep is good and this class ruled full steady, prices ranging from 5 1/2 to 6c. Bulk of receipts the past week have consisted of lambs; prices on this class have declined about 35c per cwt. Bulk of good lambs selling around 6 1/2 to 6 3/4. There have been a few loads of clipped sheep and lambs here which have sold reasonably well.

Some Features of General Election in England

When Our English Cousins Make Use of "Glorious Privilege," How They Comport Themselves—Active Part Taken by Women.

When the Americans elect a president a wave of excitement passes over the land; our British cousins are even more stirred when they elect a parliament.

We have recently had the spectacle in that country of a most bitterly contested election, and are minded to look up party campaigning as carried on over in England. The first feature that strikes us is the more or less active part taken by women in the work which here is left entirely to men. We are not informed as to whether our kin across the water have adopted our term "stump-speaking," but certainly they engage in this means of appeal to the voter. (Temptation leads us to digress here and then look up old and later meanings of "stump." The English Worcester says: "To stump it is a cant phrase signifying to make eloquent speeches in favor of one's self.") Bartley's Dictionary of Anglicisms declares it "a term borrowed from the backwoods, where the stump of a tree often supplies the place of the English hustings." Prior to English general election, women often act as campaign orators or stump-speakers. Cultivated old England lacking the stumps of American backwoods, the fair ladies mount potato cars, or what not, and from such a platform make their addresses to the British workmen. Here are some of the cabled dispatches sent when the campaign work was at its height: "In fact it is impossible to recall an election in which such bitter feeling has been displayed on both sides. It is difficult for the candidates to get a hearing anywhere—the only electioneers who appear to receive any consideration at the hands of constituents are the women workers."

"As things are proceeding, Lord Edmund Talbot is unfortunate in the fact that he is ill and unable to leave the house, and his wife is electioneering for him with apparently considerable success. Lady Edmund is engaged daily in canvassing for votes. Wherever she goes she arouses the enthusiasm of the Unionists."

"The beautiful socialist, the Countess of Warwick, is another, to listen to whose addresses the people crowd, and give her attentive and courteous hearing. She is what in America would be called a spell-binder, as much by her appearance as by what she says. The workmen and their wives flock to see this society beauty, to admire her beautiful eyes, her graceful figure and her beautiful clothes and jewels. She thinks nothing of climbing into a dirty potato car to preach socialism to the workmen. The Lady Holmsted who has inherited much of the charm, tact and talent of her mother, the

In the late campaign, as in another famous one, a transplanted American woman played active and valuable part. We refer to the lady so widely known as Lady Randolph Churchill, now Mrs. George Cornwallis West. Some years ago Lady Randolph Churchill, member of the celebrated Primrose League, gave her husband most valuable assistance in his political struggles. Just recently she lost like valuable aid to her son, vigorous young Winston Churchill. The dispatches had this to say about the

In the late campaign, as in another famous one, a transplanted American woman played active and valuable part. We refer to the lady so widely known as Lady Randolph Churchill, now Mrs. George Cornwallis West. Some years ago Lady Randolph Churchill, member of the celebrated Primrose League, gave her husband most valuable assistance in his political struggles. Just recently she lost like valuable aid to her son, vigorous young Winston Churchill. The dispatches had this to say about the Independent Churchhill connection: The Churchhill family, for the first time in its history, is rent in twain, the duke of Marlborough, the duchess, its amais, the Countess Howe, the dowager duchess of Devonshire, Lady Sarah Wilson, Lady de Ramsay and their families are on the side of protection, while Winston Churchill, his mother, and the other aunt Lady Winborne, and her family are uncompromisingly free traders."

It may be of interest to hear a little of the "back talk" English political opponents use in their campaign oratory. Mr. Chamberlain in one of his speeches waxed more than usually sarcastic, ironically referred to the "leftist" blare of this new government of all the talents and all the virtues." In another speech the apostle of protection set himself into trouble, entered into a lively debate with the sturdy labor leader, John Burns.

Howdism is a marked feature of the political meetings; and no matter how high the position of the speaker addressing an audience in a campaign fight, there may be such heckling—a term borrowed from the Scotch—he cannot make himself heard. During the recent contest, both the prime minister and Mr. Balfour were sometimes met with uproar of such might as to make it most difficult for them to proceed. When Mr. Balfour stepped out on the platform one night at Manchester the hecklers began with a fire of questions. "Listen to his speech they would not, so he good-naturedly gave in and for once was witnessed the rare spectacle of a hot conversation of two between the bony-headed sons of toil and the polished aristocrat, which ended by the latter appealing for fairness at the hands of his opponents. "I have served you 20 years," he said. "Then now you deserve a rest," came the prompt reply."

An Englishman writing in Harper's on English and American elections gives a point of view of our countrymen rather new to us; says that during the four months' campaigning preceding a presidential election, a camaigning covering a contingent, Americans as a whole prove the "innate moderation of action and temperament that underlies their often violent speech." And then this Englishman goes on to tell us that "less decent and impressive" is the election of an English parliament. He refers to the meetings broken up, the storming of platforms, speakers' chairs overturned and heads broken during the home rule riots in England in 1885; that on Mr. Gladstone's conversion to the Nationalists' cause there was a region in which insult and perhaps mobbing would have attacked the grand old man. In spite of his age and career, and compares this state of affairs with the single instance in our own country of an insult offered Bryan by the Yale boys. In America if a person interrupts a political meeting a policeman puts him out; in England the audience will cry a vociferous chairman down by "Shut up! Shut up!" Anyone may rise at any time and interrupt a speaker; with a fire of questions; and the speaker must be respectful to the British workman he will be howled, cross-questioned and barred into silence. No public man, however loved and admired, escapes.

Personalities are indulged in, as here, and also, as here, there are campaign ditties. Certain of Balfour's opponents in the late fight resorted to the contemptible device of making game of some gossip in a recently published book to the effect that the foundation of his family wealth was the sum of $10,000 his grandfather obtained by defrauding the Indian government in connection with army contracts.

To turn from this questionable work of opponents to partisan methods, we present a couple of lines occurring in one of the campaign ditties: "And if all Englishmen took their duty as they did on Trafalgar day, We'd send our navy back to Downing street with a note that he's come to stay."

The "ladies' land-slide" which has just swept Great Britain makes this prophecy a little ridiculous.

CHRISTOPHER WHEATON.

FACE TO FACE.

A New Problem For Women.

In the looking-glass a woman often sees wrinkles, hollow cheeks under the eye, crow's feet—all because she did not turn to the right remedy when worn down with these troubles which are distinctly feminine. Backache, lassitude, nervousness and these sad signs of womanhood bring such unend suffering that the face is sure to show it.

Every woman, young or old, is well protected from the blues, nervousness, backache and the many symptoms of disease so prevalent among our women—if they consistently take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a safe and sure remedy for the ills of womanhood, because it contains not a particle of alcohol, digitalis or any deleterious drugs. Weak women are made strong and sick women are made well by this splendid prescription which was used by Doctor Pierce in his large private practice in the specialty of women's diseases. Every woman troubled in this way should write him about her case, care of the "Infinite Vital and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y."

Many times women call on their family physician, suffering as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all pass on to the doctor, who, after a long and arduous examination, prescribes for them a medicine which is only a compound of drugs. The physician, ignorant of the cause of the sufferer's trouble, prescribes a medicine which is only a compound of drugs. The physician, ignorant of the cause of the sufferer's trouble, prescribes a medicine which is only a compound of drugs.

The suffering patient asks a doctor, "What is the cause of my trouble?" The doctor replies, "I am not a physician, I am a druggist. I can only prescribe a medicine which is only a compound of drugs. The physician, ignorant of the cause of the sufferer's trouble, prescribes a medicine which is only a compound of drugs."

WE SHOULD HAVE IT.

A Public Building Almost Once Secured by Dr. Clardy.

LOST BY A FALL.

It is Worth the Commercial Club's Trying For it Again.

Anent the securing of an appropriation from Congress to erect a public building here, which was briefly mentioned in our issue of last Saturday, the public knows but little, if anything, of how near we came to having a customhouse when Dr. J. D. Clardy was a member of the fifty-ninth Congress.

The Doctor may not altogether relish our giving away a "state secret," but in justice to him we must air somewhat a little information that is in our possession as to how the committee failed to recommend an appropriation of $30,000 for a building for Hopkinsville, which, along with several other recommendations for a like purpose, had been referred to the proper committee.

As our readers all know Dr. Clardy was untiring in his efforts while a member of Congress in working for the interests of his constituency. His work in trying to secure a modification of the law relating to the farmers' tax on tobacco, even at this day has borne fruit, for which he has the lasting gratitude of every tobacco producer. Though out of politics forever, Dr. Clardy takes a deep interest in public affairs and is always up with events calculated to affect public interests.

Last fall, in a lengthy article in this paper, we called attention to the great need of a public building

(sometimes called a custom house) at this place, and then stated that if we had a commercial club such a building might be secured through its efforts. But we had no club and the subject was shelved in the memory of our most public spirited citizens. We were satisfied that calling attention to a matter of such importance would sooner or later demand the attention to and serious consideration to which it was entitled, that the spirit of progress would certainly take it up and act on it.

When the revived commercial club began to show signs of life and activity we were sure that the necessity for a public building would be one of the first things to be considered. Along with the march of events and the growth of the city and the almost daily suggestion of new enterprises, nothing less might be expected than the club would make a move in this direction.

It is evident that the club "means business" and has started out on the right lines. A formal petition, already largely signed by our people, will be presented to Congress by Representative Stanley asking for an appropriation of $100,000 for the erection of a Government building here. Mr. Stanley will undoubtedly do all he can in the premises and other Kentuckians in Congress are expected to assist him in securing the appropriation. Mr. Stanley owes this county and city something, and it is presumed that he is ready to in this way discharge his obligation with his characteristic gratitude and energy.

"There's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip," and it was only a slip that knocked Hopkinsville out of a Government building towards the close of the fifth Congress. The committee on public buildings had nearly gotten through with its list of places furnished it by the House, and in five minutes Hopkinsville would have been on the places named for a $30,000 structure. But the fates willed that we should not have it. Judge Little, one of the committee, we are told, just before Hopkinsville and a few other places had been recommended, in some way fell and sustained rather serious injury. The committee, as we have said, were almost through, and palavered for awhile as to what they should do under the circumstances, when the chairman of the committee proposed that the recommendations be closed, which was done, and Hopkinsville lost her public building literally "by accident."

We are not on to all that the zephyrs are whispering and are not inclined to attach undue credence to the various rumors that are floating about town, but when we hear that a party has secured an option on one of the most valuable corners on Main street, the thought strikes us that "something big" is about to take place, and maybe a Government building site is already coveted by some one who knows more than we do.

We hope he does—if he doesn't he is not very wise. However, our people all see the need of a public building, and we are inclined to believe that the time has at least come when it may be secured. Here's to the commercial club, Mr. Stanley and any other Representative in Congress who will stand by us. All honor to Dr. Clardy, who started the ball a rollin'. May he soon see the completion of the work he undertook and lost only by accident.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"Would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. "Sad News."

I write from Lafayette
To tell you sad news—
All our young ladies and gentlemen
We most surely will lose.
There is a matrimonial craze,
With which our young men are afflicted;
To the poison of the lotus
Our young ladies are addicted.
Of the late marriages
I will mention this one,
To which I was invited
To see it well done.
Mr. Purcell gave away
His dear second daughter
To Mr. Ed. Weathers,
Who had earnestly sought her.
At the home of the bride,
At eight just precisely,
The marriage took place
So exceedingly nicely.
She looked most bewitching
In a bridal dress of gray;
She was dressed as her mother was
On her wedding day.
In appearance she is charming,
In disposition serene,
And a lovelier girl
We never have seen.
This fortunate man
Is cashier of the bank;
As a business man of merit
At the front he does rank.
He is tall and he is thin,
He's gallant and he's lean;
He is handsome, I have heard,
And intelligent, I ween.
He is a fisherman, a huntsman,
A sportsman is he;
He loves a wild life
And its pleasures to see.
He fought at Manila,
Has a military bearing;
As a soldier of war
He had the regulars faring.
What he sees in the moon
Is an American girl;
She set his heartstrings a-tune
And his head in a whirl.
These optical delusions,
Sometimes they may rule you.

This image in the moon
Must be the fair Julia.

Because they have been married,
I hope she won't weep;
No more music and embroidery,
But a house she must keep.
In this whole community
There is not a servant to let;
When they ever have a meal
She will have it to get.
In a chafing-dish she can cook,
With silver spoons she can stir,
In cut-glass she can serve it—
These were presents to her.
Through the long life before them,
On him she will lean.
I hope he will be kindly
To Julia, his queen.

We expect other marriages.
We are awakened from above.
The lotus is blooming—
Its blossom is love.

A. S. OF E. MEETING HERE APRIL 2.

Every Farmer is Requested to Attend the County Union.

PRS. CO. UNION COMING

Similar Meeting to Be Held in Many States During April.

Every person is requested to attend the county union of the American Society of Equity farmers to be held in Hopkinsville the first Monday in April. These county unions will be held in 45 States and the Provinces of Canada. Three surplus producing states have organized. State unions. Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kentucky, Virginia and Michigan will organize state unions in the month of April. Some other states will organize state unions before wheat harvest. The millers can't pay $1.00 for wheat when every farmer is dumping more than the market consumes.

This society has sold its pooled tobacco for a fair price. We have about 38 thousand pounds of tobacco in this society that is not fighting the trust or any one else. We will unfold our plans as we build. The third power, the greatest power on earth, when organized farmers can secure their demands easier than any other class if they will go about getting them as taught by this institution as to production and its resources as well as its opportunities.

The bulk of the farmers of this nation are little informed. We have worked hard to help build up the agricultural class, to get the farmers to price their crops. It can be done. We are doing it now. The strike is on. The visible supply of wheat was about 25,000,000 bushels when the strike was ordered for 20 days. This supply would last only 184 days in the United States. We will not be discouraged if the dump-er forces prices lower.

But the call is now for 600 new members at this meeting. If you fail to respond we can only ask you to pardon us for the interest we have taken with all inactive farmers and our time is needed elsewhere. One of the finest printing presses ever sent out of a factory will be completed by June 1st, to print up-to-date farming news. This press will be known as the "Equity Press."

Yours in equity,
F. B. McCOWN, President

OLD SCHEDULES

Are still in Force on the L. & N. and I. C. Railroads.

Doubtless the changes in the passenger schedules of the L. & N. and I. C. railroads that were practically agreed to ten days ago, will be made soon. The proposed changes are of such vital interest to the merchants of this city—to say nothing of the convenience of people along the line of the two railroads—that the Commercial Club will see that the changes are made as soon as practicable. Both railroad companies are willing to pull us out of the ditch into which we were thrown by the sweeping changes some weeks ago.

It Frequently Happens

that people who make individual loans are bothered in the collection of interest; that they often have difficulty in getting the principal, and sometimes lose it altogether. Those who deposit their money in the are not thus annoyed, for here they get their interest credited to their accounts on the first day of July and January of each year, no matter whether their money has been there one month or six months. It is all figured at the rate of three per cent. per annum. And, better still, they have the satisfaction of feeling that their money is at all times safe, and that the bank is prepared to pay back the principal when needed.
